

The Multifaith Association of South Australia hosts:

Humanity at the Crossroads:

An Appeal for Spiritual Leadership on Climate Change

Time: Tuesday October 20th 6.30 - 8.30pm (finger food from 6.00pm)
Venue: Alan Scott Auditorium, Hawke Centre, UniSA,
55 North Terrace, Adelaide

Speakers will identify how and where hope and inspiration for climate action can be found in faith traditions and in the science.

Keynote Address: Professor Lesley Hughes, Climate Councillor

Panel of Faith Leaders will include: -

Anglican Rev Dr Lynn Arnold, Bahai Tom Price, Buddhist John Seed,
Catholic Jacqui Remond/Fr Denis Edwards, Islamic/Jewish/Hindu tba

Humanity is at the Crossroads on Climate Change - this event provides an opportunity for all people of faith to share their hope and commitment to make positive choices for our shared planet and the common good.

Register online via MFA SA website www.multifaithsa.org.au

For further information, please email multifaithsa@gmail.com

Kindly supported by:

The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial
Centre, UniSA &

Australian Religious
Response to Climate Change

